

Zachary B. Tobolowsky Associate

Attorney Bio

Zachary (Zach) B. Tobolowsky is an associate in the complex litigation/dispute resolution group where he focuses on intellectual property disputes and commercial litigation.

Zach has an impressive academic record with honors in both college and law school. He graduated from Yale University with his B.A. in political science. In college, he was a member of Yale's varsity baseball team and was the President of the Yale Special Olympics Organization.

Zach received his J.D., graduating cum laude, from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, where he served as President of the SMU International Law Review Association (ILRA) and as a student attorney in SMU's Civil Clinic. While in law school, Zach completed a summer judicial clerkship with the Honorable Harlin D. Hale of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas and worked as a summer associate for Munck Wilson Mandala in his final year of law school.
