Munck Wilson Mandala Names Kate LaQuay as Managing Partner of Los Angeles Office

March 26, 2025 | (Time to read: 0 minutes)

Munck Wilson Mandala is pleased to announce that Kate LaQuay has been named managing partner of the firm's Los Angeles office, succeeding Jim Berry, who previously served in the role. LaQuay, a new member of MWM's executive committee, will lead the office as it continues to expand its presence in one of the nation's most dynamic legal markets.

As a partner in MWM's employment and labor and employment litigation groups, LaQuay represents clients in various law matters, including wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, wage and hour disputes, whistleblower claims, and other workplace-related litigation. She also has extensive experience in business litigation and regulatory matters, offering strategic guidance to employers navigating complex legal challenges.

"We are thrilled to have Kate step into this leadership role," said, Jim Berry, senior partner. "Her deep experience in employment law and business litigation, combined with her strong leadership skills, make her the ideal choice to guide our Los Angeles office into its next chapter of growth."

LaQuay's appointment reflects MWM's commitment to strengthening its footprint in California and continuing to provide top-tier legal services to clients across industries.
