Dallas, TX, Nov. 11, 2019 —Munck Wilson Mandala’s managing partner, William A. Munck, was listed among North Texas’s most powerful and influential leaders in the 2020 issue of Dallas 500.

Dallas 500 is a special edition of D CEO Magazine that celebrates the most influential business leaders in North Texas. Unprecedented in scope, it’s the result of a year-long research initiative by the editors of D CEO, which has been named the country’s best regional business magazine for the last four years.

“Making the Dallas 500 is no easy feat in a market as large and vibrant as North Texas,” said D CEO Editor Christine Perez. “Those featured in our 2020 edition are the best of the best; they play an integral role in driving the local economy.”

In all respects, Munck is recognized as one of the leading intellectual property lawyers in Texas, most recently being named a Texas Trailblazer by Texas Lawyer Magazine. He has built a six-attorney Dallas boutique into a 70+ lawyer firm that is the second-largest patent law practice in North Texas. Headquartered in Dallas, Munck Wilson Mandala now boasts regional offices in Los Angeles, Austin and Marshall, and will open a fifth office in Miami soon.

Munck received his J.D. with honors from the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University where he is listed among the law school’s distinguished alumni. He holds a B.S. in computer science, electrical engineering, and mathematics, and an M.S. in computer science with honors from Hofstra University. Prior to beginning his legal career, Munck designed control system software for use in industrial laboratories.

Munck Wilson Mandala is a technology-focused law firm with offices in Dallas, Austin, and Marshall, Texas, and Los Angeles, California. The firm offers full-service counsel in the areas of intellectual property litigation, complex commercial litigation, intellectual property portfolio development, corporate transactions and securities, and employment law.
