Munck Wilson Mandala is Rated Among the Best in Chambers USA

February 01, 2014 | (Time to read: 2 minutes)

DALLAS – The technology-based law firm Munck Wilson Mandala is proud to announce that Chambers USA has once again rated the firm among the best in the nation for intellectual property law matters. The publication also includes individual recognition for firm co-founder William Munck, who is named as one of the “key individuals” in IP law.

Munck Wilson Mandala provides efficient, award-winning client service to companies that range from startups to the Fortune 50®. Across practice groups, the Firm helps clients acquire, manage and/or protect intangible assets.

To earn the Chambers USA honor, law firms undergo an exhaustive independent review that includes detailed analysis of their work and direct feedback provided by firm clients. In honoring Munck Wilson Mandala, Chambers USA researchers highlighted the firm’s reputation in the litigation arena, as well as its “thriving patent prosecution and counseling practice”. Recognition was also received for its strong acknowledgement among technology-oriented clients in a wide range of fields including defense, computer science, semiconductor, and telecom sectors, as well as the energy and electronic gaming industries. The Firm is also rated among the top of many other prestigious lists including U.S. News & World Report and The Best Lawyers in America.

Chambers USA describes Mr. Munck as “renowned for his skills at strategic patent analysis in judging the enforceability of patent infringement claims. His background as a software engineer makes him an excellent resource for legal and highly technical advice”.
