MWM's Shain Khoshbin Presents The Art of Advocacy to the Mock Trial Team at Emmett J. Conrad Public High School (DISD)

January 27, 2022 | (Time to read: 0 minutes)

On Jan. 21, 2022, MWM's co-chair of high-stakes litigation Shain Khoshbin gave a presentation to the Mock Trial Team at DISD's Emmett J. Conrad Public High School. His presentation was titled, The Art Of Advocacy: Top Ten Rules For Opening Statements And Closing Arguments. According to Shain, "The mock trial coach (Hudson Bennett) and students were great. The experience was genuinely fulfilling. And, frankly, I had a blast." Included in this post is a copy of Shain's outline for the presentation (click on the pdf icon, top right).

Shain has more than 30 years of litigation experience in state and federal courts, with an impressive record of substantial recoveries, successful defenses, and appeals before various Courts of Appeals —vindicating his clients' rights. He represents clients in a myriad of disputes in a diverse array of industries, including disputes involving business torts, securities fraud, employment and non-competition matters, IP battles, and more.

Shain takes pride in achieving outstanding results in tough cases. He is annually recognized as a Texas Super Lawyer and one of America's Top 100 High Stakes Litigators.
