Experience

- Represented a very large provider of products and services to the energy industry in all civil litigation arising out of BP's Macondo well blowout (Deepwater Horizon) in the Gulf of Mexico.
- Represented officers and directors of a large bankrupt food distribution company against claims by the company's bankruptcy trustee alleging, among other things, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, negligence, and fraudulent transfers. The plaintiff asserted 27 different causes of action against 26 defendants and sought over $300 million in alleged damages. The parties reached a confidential settlement.
- Represented former outside directors and the audit committee of a publicly held energy company engaged in crude oil terminalling, storage, gathering, and transportation services in a class action alleging violations of numerous federal securities laws. The case was settled within policy limits.
- Represented eight former outside directors and the former general counsel of a bankrupt corporation that was the country's largest food wholesaler. Our clients were sued in several securities class actions and shareholder derivative suits brought in Texas and Oklahoma state and federal courts. The case was settled within policy limits after a mediation and before discovery commenced.
- Took over the representation of a limited partner after a entry of a summary judgment found that the client had breached his fiduciary duty to the partnership by competing against the partnership in the PCS auctions conducted by the Federal Communications Commission. During the trial on damages, the trial court reversed the summary judgment ruling and the jury verdict resulted in a take nothing judgment in favor of our client.
- Represented a multimillion dollar company in dispute with minority partner and negotiated the buyout of minority partner before discovery commenced.
- Represented a large merchant acquirer and credit card payment processor in a lawsuit in federal court in Delaware. Plaintiff, an issuer of Visa and MasterCard credit cards, alleged that our client had improperly processed certain credit card transactions on behalf of a large merchant. The plaintiff was seeking approximately $33.5 million in damages. The parties reached a confidential settlement.
- Represented a large "bankers bank" in a Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac mortgage buyback and indemnity suits. The cases all settled before trial.
- Represented a client in claims for fraud and violations of state and federal securities laws in Texas federal court and criminal restitution proceedings in Connecticut federal court against a portfolio manager that was involved in an elaborate fraudulent scheme to artificially increase the rate of return earned on the investments owned by his hedge fund and dramatically increase the management and performance fees paid by the hedge fund to the portfolio manager. She obtained a very favorable settlement for our client.

- Represented the Audit Committee of what had formerly been one of the nation's largest distributors of computer supplies against claims for breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, negligence, and fraudulent transfers, among other claims. The case was settled within policy limits after extensive discovery.
- Represented a limited partner against claims for fraud, conversion, defamation, and negligence arising from the bankruptcy of a large real estate development. During trial, the parties reached a settlement very favorable to our client.
- Represented a large manufacturing company in a lawsuit against a major customer that breached its exclusive requirements contract. The parties reached a settlement after conducting expert discovery on damages.
- Represented an investment firm in a disciplinary proceeding alleging violations of the FINRA rules and federal securities laws relating to the markups on millions of dollars of U.S. Treasury Separate Trading of Registered Interest and Principal of Securities (STRIPS).
- Represented the former independent directors of a Fortune 500 company in derivative litigation arising out of the stock option backdating controversy. The consolidated lawsuits were pending simultaneously in three separate forums in two states. The parties reached a settlement.
- Represented the former CEO of a major global corporation that supplies pumps, valves, seals automation, and services to the power, oil, gas, and chemical industries in securities class action and related shareholder derivative litigation. After two years of discovery, the Court denied class certification and granted summary judgment on all claims. The matter settled after an appeal.
- Represented a regional brokerage firm and have handled numerous matters (many in arbitration) regarding securities and other issues involved in broker-client relationships.
- Represented a brokerage firm against complaints and arbitration proceedings initiated by several clients relating to an option trading program that the broker represented would never result in losses to the clients.
- Represented a brokerage firm in a lawsuit against an insurer of fidelity bond for losses sustained by the firm because of an elaborate fraud and forgery scheme implemented by one of the firm's brokers. The matter was settled prior to the depositions of insurer's employees.
- Represented a large insurance company in class actions in 13 different states challenging insurance industry practices relating to the premiums for complex business insurance.
