

David M. Arvesen

Principal Attorney Intellectual Property

Dallas

darvesen@munckwilson.com
972.628.4531

David M. Arvesen is a principal attorney at Munck Wilson Mandala, practicing in the firm's technology/intellectual property group. He focuses his practice in the area of patent preparation and prosecution.

David prepares and prosecutes domestic and international patent applications in a variety of technical areas including computer hardware and software, telecommunications, HVAC systems, semiconductor devices and fabrications, robotics, and appliances. In addition to patent preparation and prosecution, David represents clients in patent litigation matters covering a wide variety of technologies.

David prepares and prosecutes domestic and international patent applications in a variety of technical areas including computer hardware and software, telecommunications, HVAC systems, semiconductor devices and fabrications, robotics, and appliances. In addition to patent preparation and prosecution, David represents clients in patent litigation matters covering a wide variety of technologies.

David obtained his bachelor of science in mechanical engineering from Baylor University in 2006. In 2012, he received a master's in engineering from Texas Tech and Juris Doctor from Texas Tech School of Law.

Prior to his legal career, David worked as a project engineer for a railcar manufacturer.

Focus Areas

Aerospace & Defense

Automotive Technology

IP Audits & Legal Opinions

Patents

Manufacturing

IP Due Diligence

Inter Partes Reviews (IPRs)

Education

Texas Tech University School of Law, JD, 2012

Baylor University, BS, 2006
Mechanical Engineering

Associations & Memberships

- State Bar of Texas
- Dallas Bar Association
Intellectual Property Section and Computer Law Section
- Registered U.S. Patent Attorney
- The Honorable Barbara M. G. Lynn American Inn of Court

Honors & Awards

- Texas Rising Stars, Thomson Reuters
2021 – 2023

Bar Admissions

Texas, 2012

U.S. Patent and Trademark Office