At a Glance

Recognized Trial Lawyer

Wallace is recognized as a tenacious, ethical advocate for commercial and intellectual property disputes. He works hard to develop the facts of each case into a credible and compelling narrative to achieve his clients' goals and objectives.

Diverse Litigation Practice

Wallace's practice focuses on business disputes involving patents, trademarks, trade secrets, contracts, fraud, unfair competition, securities, investments, business breakups, and similar matters.

Great Client Service

Clients consider Wallace a bright, personable, responsive, and thorough litigator. They say it is a pleasure to work with him and recommend him to their business colleagues.

Wallace is a partner in the complex litigation/dispute resolution group. He represents clients in state court and federal courts, as well as in arbitrations, administrative proceedings, and appeals. With over 20 years of experience, Wallace uses common sense, strategic thinking, and zealous advocacy to achieve results for his clients.

Wallace received his undergraduate degree from the Honors College at Texas Tech University with a double major in finance and economics before attending Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, where he was an editor for the International Law Review Association. Wallace and his wife, Lauren, are proud parents of two daughters.
