Munck Wilson Mandala offers legal professionals well versed in providing legal advice and transactional support in a highly regulated and scrutinized industry.

Holistic Support

From day-to-day legal counsel to transactional and litigation matters, our banking and financial team is prepared to protect our clients' best interests.

Overview

Offering a full spectrum of legal support for banking and financial services, our team is equipped to handle the issues clients face in this complex and evolving industry. We provide sound legal advice on a variety of issues, from transactions to regulatory and litigation matters, carefully aligning our guidance with state and federal regulatory policies that are applicable to each unique situation.

The banking and financial industries require legal advisors who have sophisticated experience representing these institutions and providing counsel with respect to operational, regulatory, and lending needs and when litigation is necessary, our litigation team steps in to handle disputes in state and federal courts across the nation.

The Munck Wilson Mandala team assists financial institutions, banks, leasing companies, and other entities with a wide array of legal and business matters. Our firm offers clients a broad spectrum of services, including loan workout and restructuring, dispute resolution—both before and after the commencement of litigation, judgment enforcement, and bankruptcy representation. We also advise clients on new commercial loans, including lease transactions, asset-based lending, and real estate financing.
