

Software

Highlights

- Multi-Disciplinary Staff

Munck Wilson Mandala provides a deep bench of skilled software legal strategists who know the industry and give clients expert advice on a wide range of legal issues. .

- Emerging Technology

We represent startups as well as global icons in the software industry. Our attorneys bring more than 900 combined years of tech experience to the table.

Overview

Our unparalleled legal team provides decades of experience across multiple disciplines that serve as touchpoints for the software industry. From intellectual property solutions, litigation, monetization, and more, the Munck Wilson Mandala team services all needs for its software clients.

Experience

The progressive software industry is a pinnacle to every practice group our team specializes in including business, technology, and life sciences. The Munck Wilson Mandala team works cross-departmentally to assist with the entire continuum of the software and development process, from litigation, copyright, intellectual property, marketing, and more.

Our team expertly navigates business strategies for budding companies to dealing with common legal challenges for industry leaders. Qualified attorneys and staff manage a myriad of legal issues surrounding computer software, including registration of intellectual property, protecting and monetizing intellectual property, licensing and transactions, and security and litigation.

Related Practices

Emerging Companies
Patent Litigation
Trade Secret Litigation
Technology Transactions

